

The Baton Rouge Area Mutual Aid System (BRAMAS), along with Baton Rouge Fire Department & Louisiana State Police is proud to announce the 36th Annual Louisiana Emergency Response Training School at the Louisiana State Police Joint Emergency Training Center (JESTC) on March 25th – 27th, 2025.

BRAMAS develops, maintains and improves procedures for mutual assistance and cooperates in the control of emergencies and disasters such as fires, spills, explosions, and releases of toxic substances. BRAMAS was created as a joint effort between municipalities and industry to work together within the Baton Rouge area in emergency situations.

We offer responders from the entire state this training opportunity to attend at no cost.

Our team would like to extend an invitation for your presence during this 3-day event. You may take this opportunity to show off some of your finest equipment and/or supplies. The school is from March 25th – 27th, 2020.

Registration is open now. Please go to www.bramas.org to register for classes that you would like to attend. Classes are on a first come first serve basis so the sooner you sign up the better. If you have any questions regarding registration, you may contact Tracie Kelly @ (225) 354-1400 ext. 1404 or tkelly@brla.gov.

We thank you in advance and look forward to having you accompany us at the 36th Annual Louisiana Emergency Response Training School.
