Purpose:

The Hall of Flames recognizes outstanding people who have made significant contributions to the success of LGA's organization and its membership.

Process:

We invite all active board members to submit the nomination form by October 4, 2024. The president, Larry Williams, will then select a member from the nominations to receive the annual award.

Qualifications:

Criteria includes years of service, offices held, committee participation and noteworthy accomplishments contributing to the growth and success of our association.

Presentation:

The member that is selected will be presented with a plaque by Larry Williams at the LGA Annual Operations Conference in November.

Please submit your nomination by October 4, 2024.
